

Nicole Smith
Director, Career Program

Nicole Smith joined SEO in May 2006 and serves on the management team. She recruits for SEO and manages the recruiting, interviewing and placement process for over 4,000 applicants. Nicole also oversees the Research program, the Teach For America Staff internships and is the alumni firm captain liaison.

Prior to joining SEO, Nicole spent five years at Merrill Lynch where she worked in equity capital markets and as an associate in equity research. She is also an SEO alumnus, having interned in equity research at DLJ in the summer of 2000. She seeks to share her professional experience and industry knowledge with other students of color seeking careers on Wall Street and in public service.

Nicole holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology and Spanish from Emory University.
