

Thaína González

Thaína González is currently Executive Assistant to the President & Chief Executive Officer of SEO (Sponsors for Educational Opportunity) an organization that “Prepares young people of color to lead by example in their families, communities and careers.” SEO is a national leader in developing the academic, personal and career potential of students of color from adolescence through career and she serves as the Chair of the SEO Scholars Program Alumni Leadership Committee. As chair Ms. González created an annual scholarship named for one of its alumni who lost his life on September 11th and she also serves as a mentor to several college students. Ms. Gonzalez served for many years as the National Board Advisor of Sigma Lambda Upsilon/Señoritas Latinas Unidas Sorority, Inc., as a member of Oswego’s Alumni Admissions Committee as well as the College’s Alumni of Color Reunion Committee. Ms. González has a BA in Spanish Literature, which she obtained from Oswego State University.