

Nicole Riggs

Nicole Riggs is an experienced public finance professional, and currently Vice President of Public Finance at Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group (MUFG), formerly the Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi. The team's municipal clients include the largest U.S. cities, states, transportation agencies, and utility providers. Her specific responsibilities are account planning, RFP responses, research and analysis, new product development, expense and revenue budgeting and forecasting, and marketing.

Prior to joining the bank in 2014, Nicole spent 7 years with the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, most recently as the Manager of Aviation Capital Financial Services. In that role, she oversaw and supported the financial aspects of the Department's multi-billion dollar infrastructure improvement plan. While at the Port Authority, Nicole also held positions at JFK and Newark International Airports, and participated in an accelerated, rotational management training program. Before attending graduate school, she was a Bilingual Case Manager at Big Brothers Big Sisters in Phoenix, Arizona.

Nicole earned Master's Degrees in Public Affairs and Urban and Regional Planning from the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University in 2008, and holds a B.A. in Communications, with minors in Political Science and Spanish, from the University of California Los Angeles (UCLA).

In her spare time, Nicole enjoys traveling, trying new foods, volunteering with the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program through New York Cares, and playing soccer.
